A quite beautifully finished maisonette over the top two floors of this wide end terraced period building. It has a great combination of good first floor ceiling height, impressive width and large sash windows which really bring in the light. With generous bedrooms, including wonderful top floor master suite and roof terrace with outdoor furniture, this property is desirably positioned in this quiet and highly favoured street.

Ravenscourt Park is within a short walk, so too is Wendell Park, numerous good schools and the shopping and transports hubs of Hammersmith and Westfield. Shepherd's Bush Market and Goldhawk Road tube and Uxbridge and Askew Road's eclectic mix of shops and restaurants are all within a few minutes walk.
