An attractive and light three storey Edwardian house, typical of the area, with spacious open to hall reception leading to a kitchen / dining space at the back which opens onto a decked east facing garden - at 15ft square it's larger than average for these streets. The house offers plenty of scope for further improvement and the existing older loft conversion could be brought up to date to transform the top floor. Currently the house offers three good double bedrooms and a bathroom upstairs.

Situated at the northern end of this popular street near Dunraven Road, in this quiet western W12 enclave near Wormholt Park. It is near numerous interesting shops and restaurants as well as White City House and of course Westfield. Transport couldn't be more convenient with a bus routes and Hamm. & City and Central Line tubes close by.
